JBS First in Japan To Acquire Microsoft's Modernize Endpoints Specialization in Recognition of Support for a Hybrid Workplace

Japan Business Systems, Inc. (Headquarters: Minato Ward, Tokyo; President: Yukihiro Makita; hereinafter, "JBS") has been awarded the Modernize Endpoints Specialization in recognition of its support for a hybrid workplace. JBS is the first company in Japan to have achieved this specialization.

Modernize Endpoints Specialization is a Microsoft program that recognizes partners with knowledge, experience and a track record in the provision of solutions aimed at realizing a hybrid workplace, such as remote work and working from home. Accreditation involves various requirements, including having Modern Work solutions certification, having personnel present who have acquired certain certifications, and being able to provide customer references that demonstrate a track record for delivering Modernize Endpoints solutions. Having cleared all these requirements, JBS has become the first company in Japan to acquire Modernize Endpoints Specialization.

JBS will continue to support the development of customers' hybrid workplace environments through the provision of services using Azure Virtual Desktop, Microsoft Intune, Windows Autopilot, and other Microsoft products.

We have received the following endorsement from Microsoft Japan regarding this accreditation.

Microsoft Japan wholeheartedly welcomes the Modernize Endpoints Specialization accreditation achieved by JBS. Modernize Endpoints Specialization is an accreditation by Microsoft for partners with deep knowledge, extensive experience, and a track record of success in delivering comprehensive management solutions designed for a hybrid workplace. This accreditation firmly establishes JBS's track record in supporting customers utilizing virtual desktop solutions such as Azure Virtual Desktop and Windows 365, as well as demonstrating JBS's high level of expertise in this area.

We are confident that customers will realize safe access to and management of company resources in remote work through the high-quality services provided by JBS, further accelerating the spread of hybrid work in Japan.

Going forward, Microsoft Japan will continue to drive the digital transformation of customers through a strong partnership with JBS.

Nobuhiro Ito

Business Executive Officer, Tech Lead, Global Partner Solutions

Microsoft Japan Co., Ltd.

JBS will continue to aim to be a presence that can contribute to the sustainable growth of companies and society through technological innovations in strong partnership with Microsoft and other companies.
